

The Inn at Whitewell Wine List

We are delighted to introduce our wine list, which has been arranged in a descriptive style, rather than the traditional way of region by region. Hopefully this will make wine selection easier, and by informing customers how less familiar wines taste, it should also encourage people to try new wines rather than just going for the well known 'brand' regions like Rioja or Sancerre (not that there's anything wrong with that - we have seriously good examples from both regions!).

There is obviously an element of subjectivity in this style of list, as 'medium bodied red' might not mean the same to everyone, and there are arguably some wines which could be on either side of the fence, but largely we feel it is fairly accurate and with that in mind hope that you will enjoy perusing the list and be rewarded with a splendid selection.

Some of our wines would benefit from being decanted, if you would like your wine decanting please bring it to the attention of the staff.

All the wines in this list are supplied by Bowland Forest Vintners, our wine merchants who have their wine shop in the front of the hotel. Now in their 40th year of trading they have a wonderful selection of fine and interesting wines from around the world. All wines chosen are from real winemakers who concentrate on real quality, rather than mass produced 'factory farm' wines. Bowland Forest Vintners offer first rate advice, and back it up with very friendly and efficient service.

N.B.

We would like to advise that vintages could be liable to change within this list. Whilst we try our best, sometimes we get caught out and therefore we would like to advise that vintages within this list are normally correct and only sometimes wrong!

Wines with red dots next to them are regrettably out of stock for the time being.

The Vintners Selection

The following wines have been picked due to interest, rarity and age and should represent outstanding quality.

Normally one would expect to see these wines for sale at three or four times the price but being the home of Bowland Forest Vintners we are proud to offer them at considerably less.

As interesting as these wines are, they are rare and as such we don't have many of any. We think they offer amazing value and will be something to talk about for some time.

Red Bordeaux - in vintage order

- 945 2002 Domaine de Chevalier, Pessac Leognan 105.00
This Chateau has been an undoubted star over the last 10 years. It still offers amazing value (though it's catching up with the others..!) It offers typical Graves style minerality (ie. gravel!) along with a juicy big cassis flavour and hints of vanilla. Well into its' drinking window, it's a real joy.
- 181 2001 Chateau Quinault L'Enclos, Grand Cru Saint Emilion 90.00
Beautiful wine from the iconic district of Saint Emilion. Brick red in colour, this delightful wine has gorgeous red berry fruit and kirsch aromas, together with the aged characteristics of leather and cedar wood. A wine which would suit lighter game such as roast partridge perfectly.
- 194 2001 Chateau Grand Puy Lacoste, 5eme Cru Pauillac 130.00
Only now have the hard edges softened, the fruit has come to the fore and the tannins relaxed to allow this majestic wine to show all its' beauty. This wine certainly rivals some of its' more illustrious neighbours. Sensational nose of cassis fruit, cedar wood and cigar box. Silky yet fulsome, it's delicious!
- 002 2000 Chateau Calon Segur, 3eme Cru Saint Estephe 125.00
A superb wine from one of the truly great vintages. A blend of 60% Cabernet Sauvignon, 30% Merlot, and 10% Cabernet Franc it has a sensational nose of cassis fruit, cedar wood and cigar box. Silky yet fulsome, with classic Saint Estephe minerality.
- 024 1998 Clos du Marquis, Saint Julien 125.00
The second wine of Ch. Leoville Lascases, but now sought after in its' own right. This Chateau is one of Vintners' favourites. Drinking at its' peak, it is smooth, with decent weight and the dark berry flavours are supported by secondary leather and cedar notes.
- 300 1995 Chateau Kirwan 3eme Cru Margaux 115.00
Still full of fruit with hints of plum and cassis flavours on the nose whilst the palate is still full of weight and holds up very well over a couple of hours easily. True to form, this Margaux is gentle and silky and matches roast game extremely well.
- 197 1995 Chateau Leoville Barton, 2eme Cru Saint Julien 175.00
Without doubt one of the finest Houses in the Medoc, consistently producing spectacular wine. Medium bodied and elegant, still with masses of blackcurrant and cherry fruit, with hints of tobacco, sandalwood and a touch of mint. A true gem (and a complete 'steal' at this price!)

Vintners Selection Continued Over....

- 177 1989 Chateau Haut Bages Liberal, 5eme Cru Pauillac 115.00
Classic Pauillac from a highly impressive vintage. Sturdy, fulsome and still quite a mouthful! Tannins have softened, dark berry fruit still generous, this is truly delightful old claret showing no signs of wilting.
- 284 1988 Chateau Gruaud Larose, 2eme Cru Saint Julien 150.00
A name which is synonymous with highest quality Bordeaux and whenever we find some this Chateau is first on the team sheet! It has now dis-robed itself of any lingering tannins and is showing delicate fruit and savoury aspects with hints of leather and smoke. We can't think of many better ways to enjoy some game than with a big glass of this beauty.
- 227 1986 Chateau Talbot, 4eme Cru Saint Julien 150.00
1986 exhibits incredibly complex notes of herbs, licorice, saddle leather and sweet black cherry behind the delightfully proud cassis fruit. Still highly enjoyable and defying age gracefully, it has an eye-catching garnet hue and would be the star of any party!

100% Aglianico grape from the Italy's south, relatively near Naples. Now 25 years old, it has smoothed out to be the most enjoyable wine. The nose is one of plum jam, together with hints of tea, cigar box and dark chocolate. The palate is intense, with winter spices and balsamic notes. Perfect with a platter of aged cheeses, truffles and meat sauce, it lends itself well to accompanying red meats, roasts and game dishes.
- 360 Tignanello 1998 Marchesi Antinori, Tuscany IGT 230.00
Made by one of the foremost names in the wine world, this 'Super Tuscan' is just that, not a Bordeaux lookalike but a Tuscan blend made with 80% Sangiovese with Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc. A nose of dark cherry and damson jam, with hints of balsamic and rosemary entices whilst the palate is a beautiful balance of fruit with softening tannins and powerful finish. Decant if possible, it's definitely worth it.
