

The Inn at Whitewell Wine List

We are delighted to introduce our wine list, which has been arranged in a descriptive style, rather than the traditional way of region by region. Hopefully this will make wine selection easier, and by informing customers how less familiar wines taste, it should also encourage people to try new wines rather than just going for the well known 'brand' regions like Rioja or Sancerre (not that there's anything wrong with that - we have seriously good examples from both regions!).

There is obviously an element of subjectivity in this style of list, as 'medium bodied red' might not mean the same to everyone, and there are arguably some wines which could be on either side of the fence, but largely we feel it is fairly accurate and with that in mind hope that you will enjoy perusing the list and be rewarded with a splendid selection.

Some of our wines would benefit from being decanted, if you would like your wine decanting please bring it to the attention of the staff.

All the wines in this list are supplied by Bowland Forest Vintners, our wine merchants who have their wine shop in the front of the hotel. Now in their 39th year of trading they have a wonderful selection of fine and interesting wines from around the world. All wines chosen are from real winemakers who concentrate on real quality, rather than mass produced 'factory farm' wines. Bowland Forest Vintners offer first rate advice, and back it up with very friendly and efficient service.

N.B.

We would like to advise that vintages could be liable to change within this list. Whilst we try our best, sometimes we get caught out and therefore we would like to advise that vintages within this list are normally correct and only sometimes wrong!

Wines with red dots next to them are regrettably out of stock for the time being.

The Vintners Selection

The following wines have been picked due to interest, rarity and age and should represent outstanding quality.

Normally one would expect to see these wines for sale at three or four times the price but being the home of Bowland Forest Vintners we are proud to offer them at considerably less.

As interesting as these wines are, they are rare and as such we don't have many of any. We think they offer amazing value and will be something to talk about for some time.

Red Bordeaux - in vintage order

- | | | |
|------------|---|---------------|
| 122 | 2000 Chateau de Fieuzal, Pessac Leognan | 95.00 |
| | A somewhat overlooked Chateau from south of Bordeaux, producing superb wines consistently. Typically Graves in style, earthy, spicy and full of blackcurrant aromas, it is now drinking superbly and offers amazing value. | |
| 177 | 1999 Chateau Gruaud Larose, 2eme Cru Saint Julien | 115.00 |
| | Another winner from this ever so consistent stable. Still dark in the glass, it has stacks of juicy blackcurrant, plum and leather flavours on the nose, whilst the palate is full flavoured long. | |
| 210 | 1998 Chateau Quinault L'Enclos, Grand Cru Saint Emilion | 90.00 |
| | Beautiful wine from the iconic district of Saint Emilion. Brick red in colour, this delightful wine has gorgeous red berry fruit and kirsch aromas, together with the aged characteristics of leather and cedar wood. A wine which would suit lighter game such as roast partridge perfectly. | |
| 165 | 1996 Chateau La Tour Haut Brion, Pessac Leognan | 95.00 |
| | Excellent quality, showing typical Pessac characteristics of blackcurrant fruit underpinned by a gravelly minerality. Tannins are soft, fruit to the fore, this is a wine of great finesse at its' peak. | |
| 171 | 1996 Chateau Grand Puy Lacoste, 5eme Cru Pauillac | 165.00 |
| | The beast has been tamed! Only now have the hard edges softened, the fruit has come to the fore and the tannins relaxed to allow this majestic wine to show all its' beauty. This wine certainly rivals some of its' more illustrious neighbours. Sensational nose of cassis fruit, cedar wood and cigar box. Silky yet fulsome, this is a classic. | |
| 236 | 1995 Chateau Batailley, 5eme Cru Pauillac | 100.00 |
| | Consistently producing real crowd pleasing claret, this Chateau is one of Vintners' favourites. Drinking at its' peak, it is smooth, with decent weight and the dark berry flavours are supported by secondary leather and cedar notes. Classic. | |

Vintners Selection Continued Over....

- 101 1990 Chateau Beychevelle, 4eme Cru Saint Julien 130.00
A very proud and famous Chateau right on the banks of the Gironde estuary. This is a beautiful wine, with 60% Cabernet Sauvignon giving it a more structured feel but losing none of its' grace and elegance. Wonderful vintage reflected perfectly.
- 297 1989 Chateaux d'Angludet, Margaux 95.00
One of our 'go to' Chateaux. This extremely consistent House never lets us down. Great value, with all the Margaux characteristics of elegance and subtly but happily always seems to stay under the radar! Now fully mature and drinking beautifully.
- 250 1985 Chateau Leoville Barton, 2eme Cru Saint Julien 155.00

- 370 1982 Chateau La Lagune, Haut Medoc 130.00
Arguably the best ever vintage for this Chateau. Summer berry nose with raspberries and redcurrants which have now evolved into leather and 'forest floor' characters and whiffs of cigar box. The fruit is still holding up beautifully, decant and enjoy.

A nose of dark cherry and damson jam, with hints of balsamic and rosemary entices whilst the palate is a beautiful balance of fruit with softening tannins and powerful finish. Decant if possible, it's definitely worth it.

Spain

- 618 1999 Tinto Pesquera Reserva, Ribera del Duero 87.50
Silky and elegant as you would expect from an older vintage made by this top class Bodega. Amber in colour, it still has plenty of red berry and liquorice aromas and the palate is smooth and long.

This is a beautifully elegant style of Gran Reserva Rioja. With its' gorgeously fragrant nose of red berry fruit, together with classic secondary aromas of cedar and leather it really opens up in the glass. The palate is silky with sweet spice, good acidity and plenty of fruit. Age definitely has not withered her.

Portugal

100% Shiraz with all vines well over 20 years old. Incredibly intense and concentrated with dark berry liquorice fruit, black pepper spice (of course!) ripe tannins and mid-palate richness with underlying oak complexity. If the quality isn't exceptional no vintage is released.
- 668 Henschke 'Cyril' Cabernet 1998, Eden Valley 150.00
70% Cabernet Sauvignon, 15% Merlot, 15% Cabernet Franc. Absolutely fantastic wine from the Henschke family. Intense blackberry fruit, with hints of violets, cedar and cigar box. Long soft flavours with fine grained tannins, it is still very much alive and offering great pleasure.

Cultivated biodynamically, and made with all the finesse and class of Leflaive, this blend of 70% Cabernet Franc and 30% Cabernet Sauvignon has a nose of violets, loganberries and cherries, whilst the palate is medium bodied with a firm yet delicate structure, and an aromatic finish.
- 207 Chateau Siaurac 2014, Lalande de Pomerol (Bordeaux) 58.50
80% Merlot reminds us this is indeed from the Pomerol plateau, home to some of the best right bank clarets. Terrific.

- 244 Nuits Saint Georges 2016, Domaine Henri Gouges (Burgundy) 85.00
Nuits St Georges is certainly an iconic name in the wine world. This wine is intense with aromatic characteristics of red berry fruit with a hint of spice on the nose and a silky palate with good acidity and length. 2016 was such a small vintage due to frost, some 1er Cru fruit was included in this wine and the quality certainly shines through.
- 203 Margaux du Ch. Margaux 2014, Bordeaux 85.00
Very interesting to have the 3rd wine of Ch. Margaux on the list. 2014 saw more of the fruit usually used in making their 2nd wine Pavillon Rouge consequently quality was enhanced, the result being perhaps the best ever for this cuvee. A delicate violet floral and fruity nose gives way to a smooth and gentle mouthfeel. Decanting gives full benefit to this wine of great pedigree.
