Australian Whites

Mount Langhi 'Billi Billi' Riesling Grampians, Victoria

Single Bottle – 11.70 Mixed Case – 11.12

Australia is at the forefront of the new generation of Riesling producers making crisp, citrus flavoured styles such as this excellent wine from Victoria. With hints of Kaffir lime and lemongrass it's easy to couple it with Asian style dishes.

Australian Reds

Curly Flat Pinot Noir 2012, Macedon Ranges (Vic.)

Single Bottle – 38.95 Mixed Case – 37.00

Curly Flat produce both Chardonnay and Pinot Noir from their vineyards in the Macedon Ranges in deepest Victoria. Both are limited in quantity and capture the essence of the terroir in much the same way as the Burgundians do. The cool climate assists in the slow ripening, producing wines of real intensity. The flavours of the Pinot Noir are stunning and will have no problem being cellared for 10 years at least.

Montagne Saint Emilion

A classic Bordeaux blend, Merlot dominant (60%) with 25% Cabernet Franc and 15% Cabernet Sauvignon thrown in. This terrific little wine really reflects the very good (and under rated) 2011 vintage. It is fruit driven, with delightful blackberry and plum flavours together with lots of mocha and cedar.

Spain - Whites

Bodegas Calazul Albarino 2017 Rias Baixas

Fresh and zesty in character, with hints of apples and white flowers on the nose and a clean and crisp palate. A beautiful wine with length and flavour, it goes with most seafood dishes brilliantly and can be used very well as an aperitif. Ideal, really!

Bodegas Tamaral Roble 2016 Ribera del Duero

100% Tempranillo, which spends 4 months in oak. It's full and juicy with plenty of ripe berry fruit offset by hints of vanilla from the oak and there is a smooth, silky finish. Terrific value.

FOXGLOVE

Foxglove wines are from California's Central Coast, with vines very right on the Pacific Ocean. Mild winters and cool summers lend themselves naturally to produce terrific flavoured wines of great value.

With the class, taste and power some politicians can only dream of we urge you to get behind these running mates and vote them into office/kitchen/dining room or anywhere else you may wish to drink them!
